Data Dictionary

Application Number: A unique tracking number assigned to every application received.

Application Type: The type of application submitted.

Bank Name: The name of the applicant.

City: The city of the applicant.

State: The state of the applicant.

Supervisory Region: The FDIC supervisory region assigned to the applicant.

Received Date: The date that the application was received by the FDIC.

Accepted Date: The date that the application was deemed substantially complete and found to be acceptable for filing.

Action: The action taken on the application. Actions include "Approve", "Deny", "Expired" – processing time expired, "Non Objection", "Objection", "Return" – returned to the applicant, and "Withdrawn" – withdrawn by the applicant. If there is no action displayed, then the application is pending.

Action Date: The date of the action taken.