FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

Hampden Savings Bank
Springfield, Hampden County, Massachusetts

Application for Federal Deposit Insurance and Consent to Merge

ORDER AND BASIS FOR CORPORATION APPROVAL

Pursuant to Section 5 and Section 18(c) and other provisions of the Federal Deposit Insurance (FDI) Act, an application has been filed on behalf of Hampden Savings Bank, Springfield, Massachusetts, (Mutual Institution) currently a state-chartered mutually-owned Bank Insurance Fund (BIF) member with total resources of $409,032,000 and total deposits of $315,863,000 as of December 31, 2003, for the FDIC's consent to merge with Hampden Interim Stock Savings Bank, Hampden, Massachusetts, a proposed new interim state-chartered stock savings bank (Resultant Bank). In addition, applications have been filed for federal deposit insurance for Hampden Interim Mutual Savings Bank (a de novo mutual savings bank to be subsequently organized into a mutual holding company) and Hampden Interim Stock Savings Bank.

The transaction is to effect the Mutual Institution's plan of reorganization which, solely to facilitate such undertaking, provides for:

- Hampden Savings Bank to organize a new de novo mutual savings bank under Massachusetts law to be known as Hampden Interim Mutual Savings Bank.
- Hampden Interim Mutual Savings Bank to amend and restate its mutual savings bank charter as the charter of a mutual holding company to be known as Hampden Bancorp, MHC.
- Hampden Bancorp, MHC, to simultaneously organize a Massachusetts-chartered stock savings bank as a subsidiary to be known as Hampden Interim Stock Savings Bank.
- Hampden Savings Bank will immediately thereafter merge with Hampden Interim Stock Savings Bank, with Hampden Interim Stock Savings Bank to be the legally surviving entity under the name Hampden Bank.

Upon consummation of the reorganization, the deposits of the Resultant Bank will continue to be insured under the BIF. On the effective date of the reorganization, the Resultant Bank will be a stock bank and the wholly owned subsidiary of Hampden Bancorp, MHC. Applications for the establishment of Hampden Bancorp, MHC, have been filed with the Federal Reserve System. Following consummation of the merger, the Resultant Bank will operate the same banking business, with the same management, at the same locations now being served by the Mutual Institution. The proposed transaction, per se, will not alter the competitive structure of banking in the market served by the Mutual Institution. Hampden Bank's main office will continue to be located at 19 Harrison Avenue, Springfield, Massachusetts.

Notice of the proposed transaction, in a form approved by the FDIC, has been published pursuant to the FDI Act. A review of available information, including the Community Reinvestment Act (CRA) Statement of the proponent, disclosed no inconsistencies with the purposes of the CRA. The resultant institution is expected to continue to meet the credit needs of its entire community, consistent with the safe and sound operation of the institution.

In connection with the applications, the FDIC has taken into consideration the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the proponent banks and the Resultant Bank, and the convenience and needs of the community to be served. In connection with the applications for deposit insurance, the FDIC has taken into consideration the: financial history and condition; adequacy of the capital structure; future earnings prospects; general character and fitness of management; risk to the insurance fund; convenience and needs of the community; and consistency of corporate powers. Having found favorably on all statutory factors and having considered other relevant information, including reports on the competitive factors furnished by the Comptroller of the Currency, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Director of the Office of Thrift Supervision and the Attorney General of the United States, it is the FDIC's judgment that the applications should be and hereby are approved, subject to the following conditions:

1. That, except for the proposed transfer of stock to Hampden Bancorp, MHC, no shares of the stock of Hampden Bank shall be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of, to any person (including any Employee Stock Ownership Plan) unless prior notice is provided to, and non-objection is received from, the FDIC;
2. That, prior to a sale, transfer or other disposition of any shares of Hampden Bank by the Hampden Bancorp, MHC, to any person (including any Employee Stock Ownership Plan) or a conversion of the Hampden Bancorp, MHC, to stock form, Hampden Bank will provide written notification to the FDIC and provide the FDIC with copies of all documents filed with the state and federal banking and/or securities regulators in connection with any sale, transfer, disposition or conversion;
3. That, should any shares of stock be issued to persons other than Hampden Bancorp, MHC, any dividends waived by Hampden Bancorp, MHC, must be retained by Hampden Bancorp, MHC, or Hampden Bank and segregated, earmarked or otherwise identified on its books and records; such amounts must be taken into account in any valuation of the institution and factored into the calculation used in establishing a fair and reasonable basis for exchanging shares in any subsequent conversion of Hampden Bancorp, MHC, to stock form; such amounts shall not be available for payment to or the value thereof transferred to minority shareholders, by any means including through dividend payments or at liquidation;

4. That, any change in proposed management, including the board of directors, will render this approval null and void unless such proposal is approved by the FDIC prior to the consummation of the proposed transaction;
5. That the proposed transaction may not be consummated unless and until the Resultant Bank has the authority to conduct banking business, and that its establishment and operation as a stock savings bank have been fully approved by appropriate Commonwealth of Massachusetts officials, and its holding company, Hampden Bancorp, MHC, is granted approval by the Federal Reserve to become the holding company for Hampden Bank;
6. That, the transaction shall not be consummated sooner than fifteen calendar days after the date of this Order nor later than six months after the date of this Order, unless such period is extended for good cause by the FDIC; and
7. That, until the proposed transaction is consummated, the FDIC shall have the right to alter, suspend, or withdraw its approval should any interim development be deemed to warrant such action.

By Order of the Deputy Director of the Division of Supervision and Consumer Protection pursuant to the delegated authority of the Board of Directors.

Dated at Washington, D.C.
this 12th day of March 2004
